Officers herded strikers into 19th Avenue, a main thoroughfare. Traffic was immediately backed up and street cars were brought to a standstill.

During the confusion, a striking AFT member, Ron Daidle, 32, was knocked down and injured by a street car—an incident which seemed to trigger a barrage of rocks, bottles, two-by-four lumber and fireworks at police.

Reinforcements were rushed from staging areas and their number swelled to about 150. Mounted police galloped into the lines retreating students.

Five persons were arrested then and police continued to pull student strike leaders from the picket line the remainder of the afternoon.

Hayakawa said "striking faculty will soon eliminate themselves" if they fail to report to work for five days, which by law means they automatically resign.

The teachers, besides supporting student demands, seek better pay, official recognition, more voice in campus policy and other demands.

Student strikers have 15 demands, including an autonomous Black Studies Department, liberal admission requirements for minority students, resignation of some school officials and amnesty for those facing discipline for strike activity.

Hayakawa told a news conference the picket line was a "marching circus" and added that "internally the campus functioned beautifully."

Of the college enrollment, about 2,000 are nonwhite and 836 are Negroes. The AFT claims to represent one-quarter of the school's 1100 faculty.

Lebanon Is Forming New Government

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Rashid Karami, who promises a shift away from Lebanon's virtual neutrality in the Arab-Israeli struggle, began trying today to form a new government in Beirut.

President Charles Helou asked Karami to replace Premier Abdullah Yafi, who resigned Tuesday under fire because of Israel's destructive commando raid on Beirut's international airport.

Karami, who led the 1958 rebellion that U.S. Marines were summoned to quell, heads the Democratic Front, which commands a slight majority in Parliament.

Sources close to Karami said he would try to form a coalition government, but he is expected to have difficulty because leaders of Lebanon's Christian political parties prefer continuation of the previous ambiguous policy of virtual neutrality rather than a harder line against Israel.

Included in his party's platform are support of the Palestinian commandos and their cause, compulsory military service and adherence by Lebanon to Arab policies.

In Jerusalem, meanwhile, Israeli Premier Levi Eshkol rejected France as a Middle East peacemaker. Addressing a conference of world Jewry, Eshkol said President Charles de Gaulle's embargo on arms shipments to Israel "damages the prospects of peace in the Middle East."

"This action can be compared to that of binding the hands of one of the disputants in an arena who is threatened by the other," Eshkol said, "and this by a third party which lays claim to objectivity and to a role of peacemaker in our area. From such a party, the call for peace sounds hollow indeed."

Addressing the same conference, Foreign Minister Abba Eban stressed the idea that Israel would not retreat from the cease-fire lines until she is assured of a lasting peace.

In Paris, the decision to embargo arms shipments to Israel was producing strains in the Gaullist ranks that appeared to be more serious than any since the Algerian war.

Informed sources said Foreign Minister Michel Debre, Defense Minister Pierre Messmer and Minister of State Roger Frey all were bitter about De Gaulle's decision.

Information Minister Joel le Theule acknowledged that the embargo had been "much debated" in the country and added: "It is noteworthy that Israeli influence has made itself felt... in the information media."

One prominent member of France's 550,000-member Jewish community termed this statement "veiled anti-Semitism."

The only newspaper support for De Gaulle's action came from the Communist Humanite and the Gaullist La Nation.

In New York, NBC News reported Israel either has a nuclear bomb or will soon have one. It said Israel embarked on a crash program to produce a nuclear weapon two years ago.

Similar reports have circulated from time to time ever since Israel built a nuclear reactor at Dimona in 1963.

Mixed Drinks Bill Going to Legislature

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A bill that would legalize the sale of mixed drinks in certain hotels, restaurants and private clubs will be submitted by the administration to the Arkansas Legislature.

The administration measure, drafted by James M. McHaney, a Little Rock attorney, would require a local option election on the sale of mixed drinks in wet counties.

Dry counties, under the proposal, would have to vote before being permitted to conduct an election on mixed drinks.

The bill would apply to cities or counties with a population of 20,000 persons according to the most recent federal census.

The bill would require private clubs to have been in existence for not less than two years before being able to apply for a permit.

Man Held in Slaying of FBI Agents

WASHINGTON (AP) — A man charged with slaying two FBI agents surrendered weekly in the attic of an apartment house Wednesday night, climaxing an intense house-to-house manhunt in the Capital's South East section.

The capture of Billie Austin Bryant, 38-year-old auto repairman and prison escapee, came less than seven hours after the agents who sought to question him about a bank robbery were found dead in the hallway of his estranged wife's home.

The slain agents were Anthony Palmisano, 26, and Edwin Woodruffe, 27, a Negro and the first of his race to die in the line of duty with the FBI.

The slayings, which touched off a search by hundreds of police dogs, and submachine gun-toting colleagues of the dead agents, followed by less than two hours the armed holdup of a suburban Maryland Savings and Loan company.

A teller had reported Bryant's name to police, saying she recognized him as a former customer.

Bryant, sought since he escaped from the nearby Lorton Reformatory in Virginia last August, was arraigned before a U.S. commissioner on two counts of murder and held without bail until a hearing Jan. 23.

The agents were the 22nd and 23rd to be killed on duty in the history of the bureau. Only once before — in 1934 — were two agents killed at the same time.

The bodies of the agents were found by a policeman lying one atop the other after a report was broadcast that a policeman had been shot.

Two helicopters hovered over the rundown section bordered by a wooded area as law officers, many wearing armored vests, searched along a stream bed and began combing nearby houses.

The attic where Bryant was found was only a few blocks from the scene of the slayings.

Bryant was wanted for escaping from the federal Lorton Reformatory Aug. 29, when he crashed a car through a chain-link fence. He had served less than a year of an 18-to-54-year sentence for robbing a Maryland Savings and Loan firm.

The 6-foot-2, 170-pound Bryant, a skilled auto repairman and a native of Mt. Olive, N.C., had lived "for at least two or three years" at the apartment where the agents were slain, its manager, Harry Cohen, said.

Robert Ross, who lives in the building where Bryant was captured, said his wife heard noises in the attic shortly after noon. After they persisted into the evening, he called police.

Police Capt. Charles M. Monroe, head of the Special Operations Division, called into the attic and asked if Bryant were there. The man called back through a trap door that he was Bryant, and Monroe ordered him to throw down his weapons.

A revolver came through the trap door, and Bryant followed it.

Monroe described him as meek.

Woodruffe was married and had two children.

Palmisano was married but had no children.

Part Signed at Magnolia Plant

MAGNOLIA, Ark. (AP) — Officials of the Firestone Coated Fabrics Co. plant here and representatives of Local 607 of the United Rubber, Cork, Linoleum and Plastic Workers of America, ALP-CIO, signed a three-year contract Wednesday, ending a 35-day strike.

A spokesman said the contract calls for a general increase of 43 cents an hour for all employees over a three-year period.

Constitution Delegates Organized

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The 100 delegates to the Arkansas Constitutional Convention completed their organization work Wednesday and returned home, pending the opening of formal convention sessions.

The sessions are scheduled to begin April 7 but several legislators told groups of delegates there was a chance that the General Assembly would still be in session on that date.

Since the delegates are meeting in the House of Representatives chamber, the delegates voted Wednesday to give the Administrative Committee full powers to work out scheduling with the legislature, which goes into session Monday.

Committee assignments recommended by the 12-member Administration Committee were approved Wednesday by the delegates.

The chairman and vice chairman, respectively, of the committees, are:

Bill of Rights and Preamble, Robert W. Meriwether of Conway and William C. Nolan Jr. of El Dorado; Suffrage and elections, Mrs. Dorothy D. Stuck of Marked Tree and Field Watson of Siloam Springs; Legislative, Virgil Butler of Batesville and M. C. Lewis Jr. of Hot Springs; Executive, Ray Horn-ton Jr. of Sheridan and G. Thomas Eisele of Little Rock.

Judicial, G. Byron Dobbs of Fort Smith and David Solomon of Helena; County, Charles B. Roskopf of Helena and Mrs. Beth B. Hough of Rogers; Municipal, John P. Gill of Little Rock and Henry Wilkins III of Pine Bluff; Education, Dr. Don Davis of Clarksville and Dave Block of Wynne.

job, which would probably mean he will be precluded from future space trips.

A NASA official, while declining to deny the report, said "There is a distinct possibility that he (Borman) will assume increased responsibilities."

Borman was flight commander of Apollo 8 when it circled the moon 10 times in 20 hours, during which the astronauts:

— Made a thorough photographic and visual reconnaissance of the areas over which they flew.

— Mapped potential astronaut landing sites.

— Described the moon as a desolate, forboding place, but well worthy of future exploration. They said it looked like well-trampled gray beach sand.

— Recorded magnetic effects in the lunar surface that could have a distinct influence on man's attempt to land on the moon.

— Proved the soundness of the Apollo hardware and the ability of astronauts and ground crews to conduct complex deep space missions.

— Increased the stature of the U.S. space effort around the world.

The Washington ceremonies begin a hectic schedule for the Apollo 8 astronauts in the East.

On Friday they will be honored in New York City with a ticker tape parade up Broadway, a luncheon given by Mayor John V. Lindsay and state dinner sponsored by Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

New Jersey and local officials will greet them briefly at the Newark airport Saturday before they fly from there to Miami for Sunday's Super Bowl football game.

Houston honors the astronauts Monday and Chicago on Tuesday.

Sirhan Jury Selection Starts Monday

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jury selection apparently will not start until Monday in the Sirhan Bishara Sirhan trial on charges of murdering Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Defense motions took up most of Wednesday, as they did Tuesday's opening session, and defense counsel prepared more for submission today.

However, Grant B. Cooper, one of three defense attorneys, said the defense and prosecution had agreed—after a closed session in the chamber of Judge Herbert V. Walker—to begin questioning prospective jurors no later than Monday.

The trial had its first witness Wednesday—an expert on juries. William A. Goodwin, the Los Angeles County jury commissioner, testified on how prospective jurors are selected.

Sirhan, 24, a Jordanian who came to this country with his family as a boy, listened attentively. The second session lasted less than an hour.

Cooper argued that the list of prospective jurors should be set aside on the grounds of not comprising "a true cross section of the community."

Defense attorneys raised the possibility that motions for a mistrial or change of venue may be made. Counsel Russell B. Parsons told newsmen that the defense would be prepared to present evidence in support of a motion regarding "the saturation of publicity in this area."

He said the defense is concerned about the amount and character of news stories in local news media.

Parsons declined to answer directly if this meant that the defense would seek to move the trial elsewhere. But he referred questioners to earlier defense statements that there were few places in the world where the case had not been greatly publicized.

Would this mean a motion for a mistrial was more likely? "I would say so," Parsons replied.

Sirhan, 24, is accused of murdering Kennedy and wounding five bystanders last June 5 just after Kennedy had claimed victory in California's Democratic presidential primary election.

Pulaski Penal Farm Inmate Disappears

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The disappearance of a Pulaski County Penal Farm inmate has upset the Board of the Economic Opportunity Agency and led the Legal Aid Bureau to invite a Grand Jury investigation.

John Choate, Legal Aid Bureau attorney, said Wednesday that he was sending a letter to Prosecutor Richard Adkisson asking for the investigation by the jury and Adkisson's office.

Missine Is Ezekiel Washington, 48, of Sweet Home, who reportedly walked away from a garden detail at the farm Nov. 29. The escape was not reported to the sheriff's office, and according to the family, not to them either.

His family hasn't seen him since that date but other prisoners at the farm said that they had seen him around town when they were being carried to work sites.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — The current outbreak of virus infections including Hong Kong flu now sweeping the nation has at least one good thing going for it: It permits the sufferer to really appreciate television.

This viewer, with streaming eyes, plugged nostrils and assorted aches that pills don't relieve, spent Wednesday in the company of an unobtrusive TV set.

During the day, those endless game shows with the merry hosts and the squealing contestants were much too noisy to bear, and the suffering in the soap operas had a tendency to make the invalid thrash around.

But exactly right were some of those elderly movies that are ground out during odd hours of the morning and afternoon.

This viewer turned on a perfectly dreadful World War II film in which Ginger Rogers played Rosy the riveter, and after about 15 minutes it had worked better than a sleeping pill.

Later, when Dick Cavett with Abe Burrows were much too noisy and happy, there was a 1937 movie starring Wendy Barrie playing an heiress who acquires a newspaper and a bunch of carefree reporters including Walter Pidgeon. It may have been one of the very worst movies ever made, but one could follow every plot twist with eyes closed and eventually one drifted off to dreamland.

When this bug departs, if ever, it will be interesting to compare the worst of our 1969 television fare with some of those old movies. It has got to be infinitely superior in every way—remember, we once paid money to see those oldies.

For the rheumy-eyed, the hapless TV consists of shows that can be glanced at, not watched closely. NBC, "Music Hall," with Nancy Sinatra surrounded by some smooth musical performers and plenty of sleek music was thus one of the most effective prescriptions of the evening hours.

Miss Sinatra has a pleasant way with a song and she helped immeasurably by Don Ho and the team of Sandler and Young.

Something new seems to be arriving on the variety scene: poetry readings with a musical background. Johnny Carson had CIVIL DEFENSE workers stand outside one of three Illinois limestone mines being stockpiled with food, water and medical supplies in case of nuclear attack. Each of the mines has been stocked with enough supplies to last two weeks for 30,000 persons. This mine runs some two miles back into the Mississippi River bluffs north of Prairie du Rocher, Randolph County.

Rod McKuen reading some of his own material on Tuesday night and he turned up again Wednesday on "Music Hall" with one of the most effective numbers in the hour.

The weekly NBC show has an impossible task cut out for its producers—to turn out something like a variety special every seven days and use a different guest star each time. Thus the hour has more ups and downs than a fever chart, but when it is good, it is very rewarding. And it was a good show this week except for occasional stilted conversational exchanges in which all concerned were obviously reading from cue cards.

Recommended tonight: "This is Tom Jones," ABC, 7:30-8:30 EST, special, starring the British singer, with Dick Cavett, Juliet Prowse and the Fifth Dimension.

AT LAST: WHAT IS A MOTHER?

Dear Helen: I love your "What Is A's", and want to add mine. Here it is:

What A Mother Means To Me: A mother is the one who tells you to clean your room even though she knows darn well that after you do, you won't be able to find a single thing.

She's the one who says things like, "Why don't you like Jim—he's so nice-looking and polite?" just after you've finished telling her about John, the cool guy with long hair, faded jeans and no socks.

She's the one who grounds you for a whole two weeks just because you came in one hour past curfew.

She's the one who tells you, "Brothers are like that," but how would SHE know? Just because she grew up with three of her own doesn't mean...

She's the one who wants to use YOUR hair spray that SHE bought YOU.

She's the one who'll make you wear your boots just because your brother hasn't finished clearing a path through two feet of snow that yesterday's storm dropped.

She's the one who will always biggest problem.

She's the one you always turn to because you know you can depend on her and she always knows what to do.

She's the one you love so much that after you've hurt her you're so sorry you cry. She's love, warmth and understanding, and tears at tender moments...

I love her! — KATHY
Dear Helen: I, being a kid sister, would like to voice my opinion of big brothers and sisters.

Big sisters are the ones who: Blow their cool when you enter their room.

Turn purple when you use the last piece of their expensive rose-scented stationery.

Steal all the bed covers when you need them most.

Spend the morning in the bathroom putting on and removing makeup and then firmly shut the door in your face when you try to get your toothbrush.

Big Brothers are the ones who: Always clumsily step on your toes.

Eat up the last half of the last box of ice cream and the stores are closed!

Explode when you break their favorite record.

Talk about a friend's brother who can do something you don't have the faintest idea about, which makes you green with envy and electric blue with jealousy.

But after all, Helen, what would God's world be without them?

NCAA-Backed Fights Last Night Change to Be Defeated

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Despite charges of strong-arm tactics by the powerful NCAA council and pressure from the top brass college football rule-makers are expected to beat down the new attempt to put in limited substitution, returning the game to the one-plateau system.

Before closing its annual convention Wednesday, the National Collegiate Athletic Association named a three-man committee to sit in with the 17-man committee which begins deliberations at Palm Springs next Monday on the knotty problem.

Coaches and others favorable to the more exciting two-plateau—or professional brand—of football insist that this action is like holding a hammer over the rules committee's head.

However, an informal poll of the committee indicates that sentiment is strong for keeping the present rule, which produced some of the most exciting scores and biggest crowds in history.

While the council insists the three men are mere observers, some recalled that similar tactics were used 1952 when the two-plateau system was surprisingly scrapped, not to return until 1965.

Many of the college administrators are pushing for a return to limited substitution, arguing that this is one means of cutting down spiraling costs now threatening to bankrupt college athletic programs.

The financial squeeze has brought other sharp cleavages between the men who handle the purse strings and the men who coach the teams.

One of these new areas concerns scholarships. Administrators want them reduced, perhaps placed under a national ceiling. The coaches, who depend on material for their jobs, are rebellious. Most of them want as many scholarships as they can get.

The American Football Coaches Association Wednesday voted to appoint a blue ribbon panel to study spiraling costs in athletics. The coaches are out to prove that there's a lot of land on the hog—but not from scholarships.

The scholarship problem brought an interesting sidelight to the convention when a measure was passed giving the individual institutions a stronger hand in taking away the grants-in-aid when player is guilty of manifest disobedience.

Some of the Negro members took this as a subtle slap at the black power groups and said it might be invoked just because a player wears an Afro haircut or no haircut at all.

The NCAA insisted that the guilt would have to be deeper than that and would involve boycotts and overt acts of disruption, such as the San Jose State sitdown against Brigham Young during the football season.

Relations with the pros cooled further.

The incoming president, Harry M. Cross of the University of Washington, said he hoped that colleges would refrain from letting professional teams use their facilities lest the pros interfere with the college programs.

Bobcats Beaten in Tournament

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

With two starters out with the flu bug and several others also afflicted, the Hope Bobcats could not cope with the Oak Grove Hornets of North Little Rock, and the Hornets throttled the Bobcats 65-42 in first round action at the Henderson Invitational Tournament in Arkadelphia yesterday afternoon.

Now 4-7 for the year, the Cats return to action tonight against the Mineral Springs Hornets at Jones Field House, in the finale of a three-game format including junior and senior girls' contests.

Oak Grove, at 10-2, has come along well this season for the school's best team ever, and they are challenging in District 5-A North, one of the roughest Class A divisions in the state.

Quickly the Hornets jumped to a 3-0 margin in the opening minutes, and after a Hope timeout Oak Grove changed to a full-court pressing defense. The Bobcats picked this setup apart with long passes to 6-6 Jim Singleton for easy baskets on mismatch guarding, and two minutes later the press was removed with the score standing 7-7.

Ball-handling turnovers gave Oak Grove numerous easy two-pointers, but good outside shooting kept Hope as close as 19-16 at the quarter.

Through the opening minutes of the second stanza the Hornets moved to a six-point lead, but swishers by Ronny Brown and James Simmons got the Bobcats in range again at 26-24 with 2:55 left in the half.

But Oak Grove was not assessed a single foul in the entire second period, while the locals were charged with six. This told the story later, and in those final seconds gave the North Little Rock school a 34-28 bulge at intermission.

Still Hope was very much in the game, but an oversight likely cost them the third quarter. Not realizing that the halftimes in the tourney were only slightly over five minutes, the Bobcats stayed in the dressing room one minute late, and thus didn't get a single practice shot to loosen up after the break while the opponents got over three minutes of warmup.

Immediately the effect was told, as the Cats went three minutes without scoring a point while Oak Grove built up a 41-28 margin. From this deficit Hope fought back as close as 43-35 with 3:27 left in the quarter, before the big freeze took effect.

For that 3:27 and over three minutes of the final segment the Bobcats went scoreless, and when it ended the Hornets had a 61-35 lead and the victory.

The Bobcats went without the services of first-teamers Terry Turner and Ricky Putman, and Fred McManus also failed to dress out. Of those who made the trip, several were affected by bad colds and low resistance from the tight schedule since the Christmas break.

Tonight the action begins at 6 p.m., but for Hope the big one comes tomorrow evening when the Big Cats invade Camden to do battle with the Lincoln High Tigers, whom Hope has never beaten in basketball competition. A junior boys game with Lincoln will start the action at 6:30 p.m. Remember Saturday night's games with Texarkana Washington in Jones Field House also, as the Bobcats begin play in 4-A West with the Lincoln and Washington games.

Dedmon Leads Tarheels to Victory

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Big Lee Dedmon didn't start playing basketball until his junior year in high school and you can't blame the North Carolina State Wolfpack for wishing he had waited until his junior year in college.

Dedmon is a 6-foot-10, 195-pound sophomore at the University of North Carolina. After graduation he wants to play basketball in Europe and then in the pros. Wednesday night, however, he settled for playing basketball in Chapel Hill, N.C., and led the second-ranked Tar Heels to an 83-63 win over arch-rival N.C. State with 27 points and 11 rebounds.

The big man from Baltimore was in the starting line-up for the first time because Rusty Clark, the Tar Heels' regular center, was out with an injury. Even a 60-foot basket as the half ended by Dick Braucher didn't help the Wolfpack. That made it 36-34 North Carolina at the intermission and the Tar Heels pulled away in the second half, scoring 13 straight points during one stretch to take a 77-53 lead.

Only two other teams in The Associated Press' Top Ten saw action. Eighth-ranked St. John's celebrated its entrance into the elite group with a 66-45 rout of Seton Hall and 10th-rated New Mexico State crushed Pan American 109-74.

St. John's had to overcome a one-man show by Seton Hall sophomore Mel "The Marvel" Knight, who scored 34 of the Pilates' 45 points. The Redmen led only 26-25 at halftime but broke it open midway through the second half after trailing 34-32 with 12:41 left. John Warner sparked the winners with 16 points.

Unbeaten New Mexico State ran up a 51-33 lead at the half and coasted to their 13th straight victory and highest point of the season.

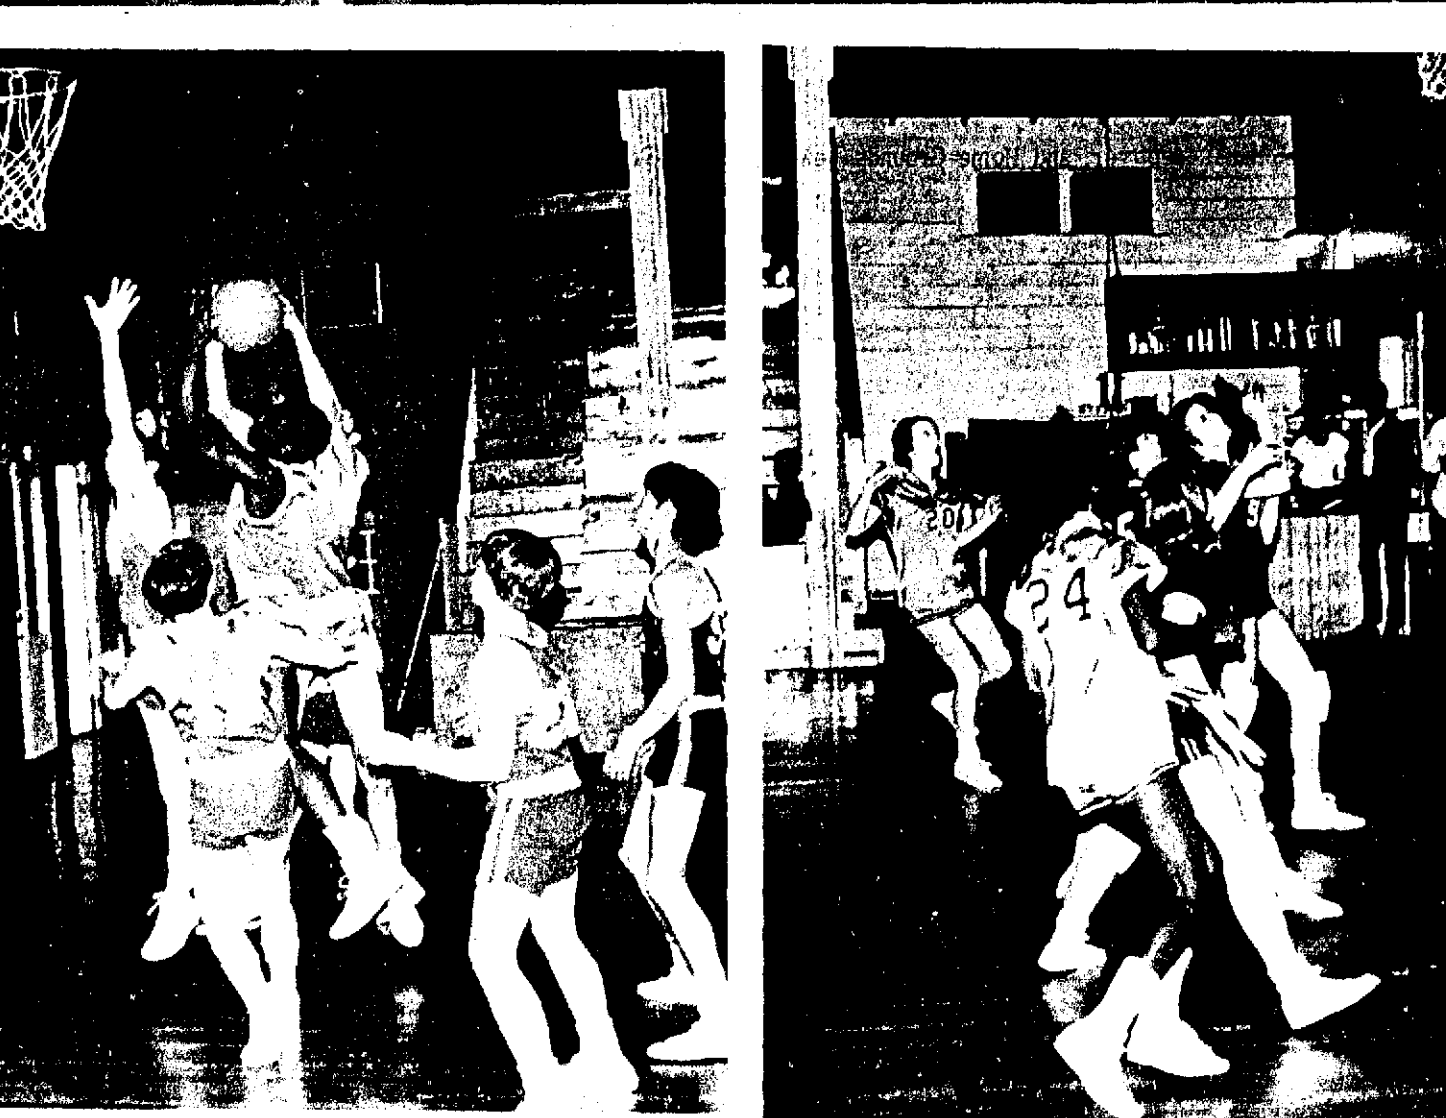

Coach Lou Henson cleared his bench and 11 players figured in the Aggie scoring. Jeff Smith had 19, followed by Sam Lacey and Jimmy Collins with 18 apiece.

In other major games, 19th-ranked Cincinnati squeaked past cross-town rival Xavier 52-50. John Roche and Bill Walsh scored three points apiece in the final 90 seconds as South Carolina rallied to edge Maryland 69-67. Disappointing Duke got by Wake Forest 85-81.

Elsewhere, Connecticut, once a Yankee Conference power, snapped a 10-game losing streak by shooting 57 per cent and routing Syracuse 103-84. It was the Huskies' first win of the season.

Georgia Tech made 26 of 35 free throws to turn back Clemson 72-66.

Simple Layup Causes Rockets to Fizzle

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
San Diego's Rockets launched a tremendous come-from-behind effort, but Wes Unseld scuttled the whole thing with a simple layup.

Unseld nursed in the layup with just three seconds left Wednesday night to give the Baltimore Bullets a 108-107 victory over the Rockets in the National Basketball Association. Philadelphia nipped Atlanta 112-101, Boston stopped Detroit 113-104 and New York rolled past Milwaukee 115-101 in the night's other activity.

Over in the American Basketball Association, Kentucky sailed past Indiana 109-97. Minnesota edged Miami 128-124 and Los Angeles checked Denver 117-112.

San Diego was 17 points behind early in the fourth quarter when it started its rally, moving to a 107-106 lead with 30 seconds left on Don Kojis' jump shot.

Pat Riley and Kojis doubled teamed the Bullets' Earl Monroe, and stole the ball with 16 seconds left. Jack Marin of Baltimore fouled San Diego's Elvin Hayes, but the rookie center missed both free throws with nine seconds remaining, giving Baltimore possession. Marin then missed a 25-foot jumper, but Unseld grabbed the rebound and put it in for victory.

The victory enabled the Bullets to maintain their 1½ game lead over Philadelphia in the rugged Eastern Division race. Marin finished with 27 points, Kevin Loughery had 26 and Monroe 24. Hayes had 26 for the Rockets.

Billy Cunningham's jumper with just two seconds left carried Philadelphia past Atlanta after the Hawks had moved ahead 111-110 on a pair of free throws by Lou Hudson with six seconds left.

Bill Russell also supplied some last minute heroics for Boston.

The Celtics were ahead by only 105-104 with 1:20 left when Russell went high to stuff one basket, then stole the ball and set up another by John Havlicek to hike the lead to 109-104. Bally Howell then hit a pair of free throws and a field goal for the final margin.

The loss was painful in more ways than one for the Pistons. Dave Bing, last year's NBA scoring leader, was forced to leave the game with a leg injury suffered in a multi-player collision under the boards in the third period. And teammate

In the Gale Junior tournament last night Blevins posted the first victory by taking Laneburg 46 to 12. It really was no contest and Blevins led at the half 30 to 6. The Blevins team goes back into action tonight at 8 o'clock, playing Chidester.

In the second game of the night

Prescott edged village, the score being 43 to 40.

Happy Hairston was forced out in the final period with an arm injury after colliding with Larry Siegfried early in the final session.

Havlick led Boston with 17 points and Howell had 26. Eddie Miles scored 21 for the Pistons. New York, which had its 10-game winning streak broken by Chicago Tuesday night, came back with 19 straight points midway through the first half to easily rout the Bucks.

It was 25-25 when New York went on its spurge to build its lead to 44-25, and Milwaukee never got closer than eight points after that.

Faubus to Head Dogpatch, U.S.A.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Former Gov. Orval E. Faubus says he will become president of Dogpatch, U.S.A. on Feb. 1.

Faubus said Wednesday he had taken the post with the cartoon-character hillbilly community near Harrison because he thinks developing tourist attractions is the best way to help Arkansas' economy. He said he would live there.

The community was built as a tourist attraction, and plans for its expansion have been announced.

Since he left office two years ago Faubus has been writing his World War II memoirs, operating a weekly newspaper at Ozark and dabbling in politics. But he said he would stay out of politics as long as he is connected with Dogpatch.

Man Spurns Half Million Pro Contract

By WILL GRIMSLEY Associated Press Sports Writer LOS ANGELES (AP) — Penn State's young Joe Paterno, who spurned a half-million dollar coaching contract with the pros to stay on campus, acknowledged today he is a "corn-ball" and an "idealist."

"Some people may think I'm nuts for turning down such an offer," the slight, 42-year-old former Brown University quarterback said. "But I think there is more to life than money. I don't want to restrict myself to football."

Paterno, whose Nittany Lions now are unbeaten in 19 games, turned down Wednesday an offer from the Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League which reportedly would have given him $50,000 a year for 10 years.

"I can't say what the contract was—Pittsburgh will have to do that," he added. "It would have assured me a lifetime of financial security for my family. I can never make that kind of money in College coaching, but I put more value in other things."

"I love campus life, I love the western Pennsylvania community where I live, I enjoy taking young players and watching them develop into men. I like the challenge of big-time college football."

Paterno said he resents the impression of some people that a college team to be big and successful must be crooked.

"I know from my experiences at Penn State that boys can be gentlemen and have humility on and off the field and still win," he continued. "Just because a team is good doesn't mean there are abuses, under-the-table payments and so forth."

Penn State during the past season won 10 games without a defeat, beat Kansas in the Orange Bowl and gained No. 2 ranking in The Associated Press final football poll.

Paterno, of Italian ancestry, was born in Brooklyn, the son of an attorney. He has a brother, George, who had a successful year as coach of the U.S. Maritime Academy.

He attended Brown University at Providence, R.I., where he intended to major in English and law. But he played football there under Rip Engle and when Engle went to Penn State as head coach in 1950 Joe went with him as assistant.

He served 16 years as assistant and in 1966 succeeded his old boss. His first year Penn State was 5-5, then in 1967 8-2-1 and last year 11-0.

Paterno said no matter how pressing the football season he takes one-half hour off every weekend to take his four chil-commends the Centerville, Homemaker, Melrose and Shover Springs Extension Homemaker Clubs for their special efforts and interest in participating in educational endeavors for homemakers and sharing information by acting as leaders in their communities.

Scoring Honors Fail to Help Kentucky

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Louisville Dampier won the night's scoring war from Connie Hawkins by four points, but it didn't help Kentucky much in its battle to overtake Minnesota in the American Basketball Association's Eastern Division.

Dampier drilled in 46 points—including five three-pointers—to power the Colonels to a 108-97 victory over the Indiana Pacers.

But first-place Minnesota, backed by Hawkins' 42-point outburst, maintained its five-game lead over Kentucky by edging Miami 128-124.

Los Angeles rolled past Denver 117-112 in the night's only other game.

In the National Basketball Association, Philadelphia nipped Atlanta 112-111, Boston defeated Detroit 113-104, New York sailed past Milwaukee 115-101 and Baltimore stopped San Diego 108-107.

Kentucky's victory enabled the Colonels to climb into a second-place tie with the Pacers, who had won six in a row.

The Colonels, who also got 20

dren—aged five years to 10 weeks—for a ride in the country. There they all talk to the cows.

points from Jim Logan, tepped to a 28-15 first quarter lead and Indiana never got closer than four points after that.

Mel Daniels scored 30 for Indiana, while teammate Fred Lewis has 22.

Minnesota built a 70-56 half-time command, then weathered a Miami outburst in the third period, when the Floridians scored 18 straight points.

But then Hawkins and Steve Vascdek, who finished with 28, found the range and put the game out of reach late in the final quarter.

Donnie Freeman scored 27 points and Skip Thoren 24 for Miami, which had a six-game victory streak snapped.

Los Angeles made up a 13-point deficit late in the last quarter to upend Denver. After Larry Mitchell's two free throws tied the game, 108-108, George Stone hit four free throws and Warren Davis came up with a three-point play to wrap it up for the Stars.

Senate Leader Lashes Outside Liberals

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield says that while a Republican occupies the White House, Democrats in Congress should shape party policy and not an outside group of liberals. Mansfield visibly shuddered when asked in an interview for an opinion on revival of the Democratic Advisory Council which spewed out party policy pronouncements during the GOP Eisenhower years. The council, organized to emphasize a liberal viewpoint in party affairs, was continually at loggerheads with then Democratic Senate Leader Lyndon B. Johnson and the late House Speaker Sam Rayburn. Mansfield said the center of policy-making will shift from the White House to Congress when Nixon is inaugurated. "My feeling is that the Democratic majorities in the two houses will take the lead in shaping major party policies," Mansfield said. "We can't afford to speak with many voices. There will be more than enough of that right here on Capitol Hill."

Retiring Democratic National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien had been thinking of proposing that outsiders be invited to sit in at times with the party policy committees of the two houses. Any such proposal now awaits the selection of his successor.

The Republicans also have a committee that helped shape policy while Democrats were in the White House. But its makeup is vastly different from the Democratic Advisory Council and Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen said he would like to keep it functioning.

Dirksen said the committee's task during the Nixon administration should be to concentrate on producing factual background reports on major issues. He conceded that any policy pronouncements would have to be cleared in advance with Nixon.

Involved in the continuance of the committee is the question of whether Ray Bliss, its presiding officer, will retain his national chairmanship. Nixon has been urged in some quarters to replace Bliss with a better television performer. Nixon has been silent but even some of Bliss' friends are convinced it is only a matter of time until the chairmanship changes hands.

Trevino Not Worried at Los Angeles

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — U.S. Open champion Lee Trevino, no stranger to sand putting surfaces or most any other green, perfect, good or bad, isn't worried about the setting of the Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament. The peppery little guy from El Paso, Tex., was ready to shoot for the works today as play began in the 43rd annual mid-winter golfing fixture for a $100,000 purse. Along with Trevino were such greats of the game as Billy Casper, the 1968 winner of the event, and three-time winner Arnold Palmer. The setting is the 6,827-yard par 36-35 — 71 Rancho Park course where Palmer scored his victories in 1963 and successive wins in 1966-67. Casper's triumph a year ago, his first here in 13 attempts, came on Pasadena's Brookside Municipal course. He has yet to win at Rancho. A year ago Trevino, yet to hit the headlines in winning the National Open, tied for eighth and earned a respectable $2,950 for four days of labor. The person-

Today's column will discuss the correct answer to yesterday's "Card Sense" bidding question. It involves the "Grand Slam Force."

Ely Culbertson invented this bid around 1935 and abandoned it because the bidders of that day weren't ready for it. Today it is in general expert use throughout the world. Specifically it is a five no-trump bid designed to ask partner how good his trumps are.

North merely bids two clubs in response to his partner's spade opening because he wants as much room as possible to maneuver. He decides to jump to three spades as his second bid and is delighted when South rebids to four hearts. This announces good hearts and a satisfactory opening call so North is interested in six or seven. A Blackwood routine will tell him that his partner holds the ace and king of hearts and king of spades but it won't tell how good South's spades are.

The five no-trump grand slam force gets him this information. There are many ways of responding to this convention but the most approved method is that the more you bid, the better your trumps. South has opened one spade and bid and rebid hearts so that North is entitled to assume he has five spades and at least one of the three top honors. Six clubs would show this one honor and nothing more, six diamonds shows a top honor plus something extra. It might be a sixth trump but in this case

DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Normal Sex Life Despite Hysterectomy

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—What are the effects of a hysterectomy on a woman of 49? Does this mean the end of normal sex life for a married woman?

A—Removal of the uterus brings on a surgical menopause if the woman is not already in or past the change of life. Neither natural nor surgical menopause means the end of any part of a woman's sex life except her ability to become pregnant.

Q—I am 22. My doctor refuses to give me a Pap test. At what age should a woman start to have this test?

A—Cervical cancer is so rare in women who are under 30 that a Pap smear before that age is rarely done.

Q—About 18 months ago I had a complete hysterectomy because of cancer of the uterus. Why does my doctor now recommend a yearly Pap smear?

A—You should continue to have an annual checkup including the Pap smear because cancer sometimes recurs in the tissues adjacent to the uterus that was removed.

Q—I am a woman, 44. My doctor says that my uterus is tipped and presses on my bladder. He says that the only cure is surgery. Would knee-chest exercises help me? Will the menopause end the trouble?

A—Most cases of tipped uterus can be corrected by wearing a ring pessary. Exercises will not help. The menopause will not affect the displacement. Surgery for this condition is rarely advisable.

Q—I have had endometriosis since I was about 15. I recently married but have not become pregnant. Could my endometriosis be the cause?

A—Endometriosis is a non-malignant growth of tissue, similar to that lining the uterus, extending into various parts of the pelvic cavity. The victim usually finds it difficult to conceive and may suffer from severe menstrual cramps. Treatment with norethindrone or medroxy progesterone for about a year often cures the condition. If this does not work, surgical removal of the abnormal tissue may be advisable.

Q—What is the treatment for fibroid tumors?

A—Most of these benign tumors cause no symptoms and require no treatment. With the onset of the menopause they may shrink. If they cause such symptoms as bladder irritation or uterine bleeding a hysterectomy should be performed.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

QUICK QUIZ BLONDIE

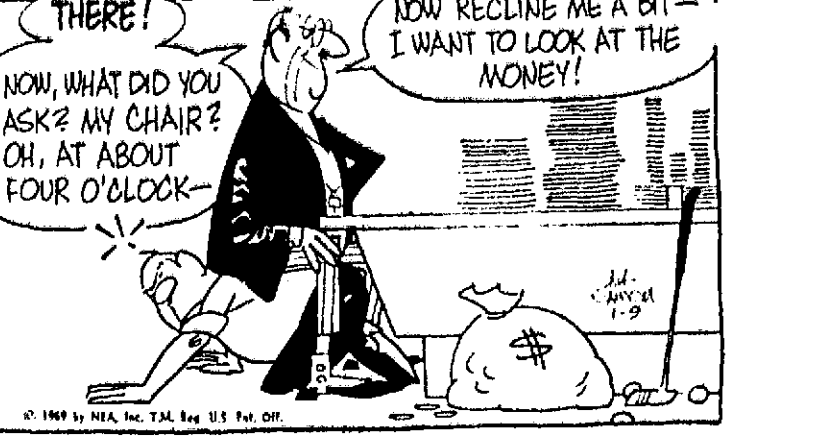

Q—Why is the Friday before Easter called Good Friday?
A—In the Western tradition, it is called "Good" Friday because the faithful Christian is expected, on that day, to live a careful life totally free from sin in remembrance of the crucifixion of Christ.
Q—Who was the first golfer to win the Masters Tournament four times?
A—Arnold Palmer in 1958, 1960, 1962 and 1964.

Amazing Flyers Play Toronto to 4-4 Tie

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
If a tie game is like kissing your sister its just one smooch after another for the Philadelphia Flyers.
The amazing Flyers continued their Year of the Tie Wednesday night by playing Toronto to a 4-4 National Hockey League stand-off. It was their fourth straight deadlock—every game so far in 1968—sixth in the last seven games and 11 of the season.
The NHL record is 23 ties by the 1962-63 Montreal Canadiens.
In the only other action, Chicago downed St. Louis 3-1 and moved past Toronto into third place in the East Division.
Toronto Coach Punch Imlach took a gamble named Bruce and inserted him in the nets early in the final period after the Flyers had taken a 4-3 lead against veteran goalie Johnny Bower on Guy Gendron's second goal of the game.
Gamble only had to stop three shots in the final 18 minutes—the Leafs outshot the Flyers 44-19—and Mike Walton's goal at 3:08 forged the final tie of the evening.

Gendron and Jim Johnson gave Philly a 2-0 lead but Ron Ellis, Norm Ullman and Bill Sutherland scored quick goals to give the Leafs a 3-2 lead. Flyer rookie Dick Sarrazin tied it at 21 seconds of the middle session.
Goalie Doug Favell was brilliant for the Flyers, kicking away 40 shots, while the Toronto fans booed the 44-year-old Bower, who looked bad on several occasions.
Goals by Pat Martij, Bobby Hull—No. 28—and Stan Mikita carried Chicago past St. Louis' West Division leaders, After Martin and Gary Sabourin of the Blues traded goals, Hull scored the winner at 18:18 of the second period on a nifty passout from Gilles Marotte. Mikita rebounded Ken Wharram's shot with three minutes left.
Driving for pleasure is the most popular outdoor recreational activity in the nation.

K-Wesleyan Almost Loses Top Rating

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Kentucky Wesleyan, almost knocked off its perch atop The Associated Press' small-college basketball ratings, faces another difficult assignment this weekend when it takes on 10th rated Gannon, Pa.
The Panthers from Owensboro, Ky., suffered their initial setback of the campaign when they bowed to Evansville 71-70 last week. The result helped runner-up Fairmont of West Virginia to move to within 11 points of the leaders in the latest vote by a national panel of 16 sports writers and broadcasters.
Kentucky Wesleyan, 8-1 through games of last Saturday, accumulated 234 points in the balloting to 223 for unbeaten Fairmont, which edged the Panthers in first-place votes, five to four.
The Panthers meet Corpus Christi tonight and take on Gannon Saturday night. Gannon defeated Mt. St. Mary's, Illinois Wesleyan and San Francisco State last week in lifting its record to 9-2.
Stephen F. Austin rushed up to grab third place in this week's balloting followed by Ashland, Ohio, which held its ground, and Trinity, Tex., which slipped two positions to fifth.
Southwestern Louisiana, Central State of Ohio, Evansville, which advanced from 15th to eighth, Long Beach State and Gannon complete the first 10 in that order.
Illinois State, tied for 19th with Cheyenne, Pa., State, is the only new team in the second 10.

Tips about apples!

Now...right now, is the time to buy apples.

Right now at A&P, apples are at their best.

Here are some apple buying and handling tips:

SELECT APPLES THAT ARE FIRM, particularly the larger sizes. Big apples tend to mature more rapidly, and when soft, usually have a mealy texture.

REFRIGERATE YOUR APPLES. Warm temperatures cause apples to lose their crispness and tangy flavor.

QUICK PEELING TIP: If you are going to cook apples, dip them quickly in and out of boiling water. The skin will come off much more readily.

TO PREVENT DISCOLORATION OF PEELED APPLES, place slices in a pan of cold water. Add a pinch of salt for each whole apple peeled.

LEAKING PIES: Sprinkle salt on spilled juice from pies in a hot oven. The juice will burn crisply, making it easier to remove.

DISCOLORATION OF ALUMINUM UTENSILS can be removed by boiling a number of apple peelings in the utensil.

THE BEST TIP OF ALL: Don't miss the wonderful selection, the great apple values A&P has right now.

New Way to 'Cut Your Own Taxes'

By RAY DE CRANE
NEA Publications

The 1968 income tax returns which were mailed out to the nation's taxpayers in early January are now colored in red, white and blue. Sheldon S. Cohen, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, is not attempting to appeal to the patriotism of taxpayers by his choice of colors. Rather, he is taking this step in an effort to reduce taxpayer errors. The use of red-colored type in critical areas of the return is designed to highlight the sections where errors most frequently occur. Last year more than 8,000,000 errors were made by taxpayers in 73,000,000 individual income tax returns that were filed. "This means," Commissioner Cohen reported, "that almost one in nine individual returns had an error that slowed processing and may have delayed the taxpayer's refund. What we are trying to do now with this version of the form is simply to help the taxpayer concentrate on the common trouble spots."

The cynic might have replied to Commissioner Cohen that, regardless of the color used by IRS on the income tax forms, in the mind of the taxpayer there is only one appropriate color—a heavy overlay of green for the extra dollars he will have to pay. As a further experiment this year, 5,000,000 taxpayers in New York and the New England states will have tax forms with a blue tint screened over everything on the form except the taxpayer fill-in area. Of the 2,900,000 tax returns audited last year by IRS, 1,500,000 were found to have underpaid their tax. This resulted in additional assessments of $2,900,000,000.

The errors were uncovered by Internal Revenue's giant computers which now process every return filed in the country.

Readers of this newspaper now have the opportunity to subject their own return to their private computer audit before they file it. This will give them the assurance and peace of mind that goes with the filing of a letter-perfect return. The "Cut Your Own Taxes" book for 1968, available through this newspaper for $1, now offers a computer service as a bonus for its subscribers.

By simply completing a special computer form detailing their items of income and deductions and mailing it, together with $2, they will receive a computer print-out which will tell them what entries to make on the remaining lines of their return. The computer will complete every mathematical computation on the return, whether it be addition, subtraction, multiplication or the use of percentage figures. It will search out the correct tax table or tax rate schedule to report your correct tax.

The computer will determine your dividend exclusion for you if you are reporting stock dividends. It will calculate your medical deduction unerringly. If you still owe additional tax the computer will inform you of exactly how much. If you are entitled to a refund the computer will tell you how much to expect.

This year's Internal Revenue forms have been revised from the ones in use last year. The Schedule B, used to report pension income, has been completely overhauled. The changes may confuse you; but they can't puzzle the computer.

Liberals Act to Block Sen. Byrd

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) - Two Senate liberals have moved to block Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va., a critic of federal civil rights programs, from taking the chair of a subcommittee that influences appropriations for school desegregation programs.

Warren G. Magnuson of Washington and Rhode Island's John O. Pastore, both Democrats, have teamed up in a plan to keep Byrd from becoming chairman of the Labor-Health, Education and Welfare appropriations subcommittee.

Byrd last fall had let it be known he wanted to give up the chair of the District of Columbia appropriations subcommittee and take over the labor-HEW panel, where he would be in a position to influence and possibly restrict various welfare, education and poverty programs.

But Magnuson and Pastore would use the almost always followed seniority system to keep Byrd out of the labor-HEW position. Magnuson would become chairman of the labor-HEW subcommittee, succeeding retiring Sen. Lister Hill of Alabama. Only Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia, who is expected to keep his defense subcommittee, outranks Magnuson on labor-HEW which last year took over the anti-poverty program.

Pastore would succeed Magnuson as chairman of the independent offices subcommittee, which handles funds for the space program and the Department of Housing and Urban Development, unless Sen. Spessard L. Holland, D-Fla., decided to give up agriculture and take it. Strong supporters of Great Society-type programs will take command in areas likely to be key battlegrounds during Richard M. Nixon's administration if present intentions are confirmed when the Appropriations Committee reorganizes under its new chairman, Sen. Russell, who formerly headed the Armed Services Committee.

Damage Small in Accident

In the 200 block on South Walnut downtown yesterday a pickup truck driven by Virginia Sue Hiscott was hit from the rear by an auto driven by Walter Green. There was very light damage to the Green vehicle and none to the truck. Officers Clark and Johnson filed no charges.

Folks Are Funny, They Protest Junk Mail But Secretly They Love It

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) - Junk mail is regarded by most people as one of the major nuisances of our times. Or so they say. "Why does the postman clutter our mailboxes with junk mail?" they ask. "Why does the government deliver millions of dollars to deliver this junk?" They say, "It must cost the government millions of dollars to deliver this junk."

That's what they say—but do they really mean what they say? In most cases they probably don't. They are simply kidding themselves. Secretly they love junk mail. For junk mail serves a needed purpose in our rut-ridden civilization. It bolsters small egos and acts as a cheerleader in starved lives.

For example, let us suppose you are Henry Quietus Abernathy. You don't really amount to much in the big world's eye. You haven't done much in the past, and the likelihood is that you won't do much in the future. At office or factory your boss regards you as a small cog, a chair filler or wrench turner. At home your frowzy wife eternally berates you for not earning more money. If you try to order your kids to do something, they laugh at you. Even your fond mother in her heart thinks of you as the dullest of her brood.

Youths Not Eligible Found on California Job Training Payroll

Capital to Welcome Astronauts

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) - The Apollo 8 astronauts, hailed as "history's boldest explorers," received medals from President Johnson and a standing ovation from Congress today as the nation's capital pulled out the stops to honor them for their historic moon orbit mission.

In a White House ceremony, the President decorated Air Force Col. Frank Borman, Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. and Air Force Lt. Col. William A. Anders with Distinguished Service Medals of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

The astronauts conclude the ceremonies tonight with a private reception and dinner at the Smithsonian Institution attended by top level government officials.

The wives and children of the astronauts accompanied them to Washington Wednesday night from their homes near the Manned Spacecraft Center in Houston, Tex.

Since ending their lunar flight on Dec. 27, Borman, Lovell and Anders have been closeted with experts in Houston, recording all the intricate details of the mission—details intended to ease the way for other astronauts to land on the moon later this year.

Temperatures Set Records in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A deep low pressure system that pushed warm dry air across Arkansas produced record temperatures Wednesday in some areas of the state.

Little Rock recorded a high of 81. The record of 73 degrees was set in 1880. The 81 degree reading was also the highest ever recorded at Little Rock between the end of November and Jan. 23.

Fort Smith, with a reading of 76, cracked the record of 72 established in 1949.

The strong pressure gradient associated with the low pressure center also resulted in unusually strong surface winds.

Hot Springs reported gusts to 45 miles an hour and 39 mile an hour winds were recorded at the Little Rock airport.

Much colder temperatures are expected today, tonight and Friday as cold dry air pushes across the state.

Overnight low temperatures ranged from 26 at Fayetteville to 42 at El Dorado. No rainfall was reported during the 24-hour period ended at 6 a.m.

Al Capp to Speak at Press Meet

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—The 97th annual convention of the Arkansas Press Association opens in Hot Springs today with a meeting of the board of directors.

Speeches and other convention activity start Friday.

Al Capp of Boston, creator of the L'il Abner comic strip, will speak at noon Saturday.

Speakers on Friday's schedule include Col. Ralph Scott, director of the State Police; Joe Gaspard, director of the state Alcoholic Beverage Control Board; and Herbert Hoxie, FBI special agent in charge at Little Rock.

Through last June, the Labor Department had awarded 4,800 contracts to agencies across the country under the 4-year-old program, obligating a total of $1 billion in federal funds.

Of this amount, said the GAO, $34.4 million went to the Economic and Youth Opportunities Agency, official anti-poverty organization of Los Angeles County, which in turn channeled money to cooperating organizations.

In addition to citing participation by ineligible youngsters, the 106-page GAO report said it found other weaknesses, including:

- Spotty attendance or non attendance by project participants in the supplementary education programs required by the Labor Department;

- Ineffective job development and followup services needed by participants to ensure meaningful permanent employment or additional training;

- Inadequate records kept by project sponsors on costs reimbursable by the federal government;

- Inadequate reporting by project sponsors in documenting non-federal contributions to the program;

- Weakness in the control over and accounting for federal contributions to the program.

Hope Federal Dividends Increased

Hope Federal Savings & Loan Association today hiked its dividend rate to 5.25 percent on one-year savings deposits of $15,000 which is the highest legal limit. It was announced by Fred O. Ellis, president of the firm.

In announcing the new and higher rate, Mr. Ellis said that Hope Federal was following a long established custom of paying its depositors the top rate on savings.

"It's been our policy and our tradition, year after year, ever since organization 34 years ago, to pay our depositors the most," Mr. Ellis concluded.

Order Bans Striking by Teachers

By STEVE BASSETT
Associated Press Writer
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - San Francisco State College was armed today with a court order banning picketing by striking teachers. But the order did not cover the students.

It was issued late Wednesday by Superior Court Judge Edward O'Day only hours after students and teachers had bombarded police with stones, bottles, sticks and fireworks during a violent melee.

And acting President S.I. Hayakawa, his voice breaking and his hands shaking slightly, told newsmen for the first time since the strike began:

"Attendance is not normal."

O'Day, acting on an application by state college trustees, temporarily banned picketing and other strike action by the American Federation of Teachers, Local 1352. Trustees also seek unspecified damages.

Wednesday's violence came after the AFT, for the second straight day, lost control of the picket line and jeering, profanity-shouting students took over.

After the line had swelled to about 1,000, police moved about 12 men into the line to open a corridor to allow non-strikers to

Peace Talks Snagged by Complicated East, Practical West Snag

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent
PARIS (AP) - American efforts to get Vietnam peace talks started are snagged by a conflict between the practical West and the complicated East.

The North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front have the role of speculators, watching the development of debate in their opponents' camp. That debate apparently must be settled before Washington and Saigon can put forward new proposals.

The United States wants to overleap the debate which now seems to be a major obstacle to getting the talks started quickly. This attitude calls to mind the practical approach to the case of the intelligence ship Pueblo captured by North Korea.

In the Pueblo case, the main obstacle was North Korea's insistence that the Americans confess wrongdoing and apologize before the crew would be released. Here in Paris, the problem is whether there are two sides or four involved in the Vietnam War.

To Americans the question might seem trivial alongside the major goal of getting a conference started. To the Saigon government it is a matter of importance, of prestige, involving a risk of giving "face" to the enemy and placing him in a position to demand more.

To accomplish their goal in the Pueblo case, the practical Americans ceremoniously signed a confession of wrongdoing and publicly denied it at the same time.

In Paris, the United States again seems eager to take the practical approach in order to get everybody to a conference table. Once there, the Americans would affirm publicly—as they have all along—that they still adhere to the concept that there are two sides and not four in the Vietnam War. The opponents would be free to interpret the shape of the table or the seating arrangements in any way they wished.

To Saigon, at the moment, this appears to be an effort on the part of the Americans to push through concessions favoring the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front. South Vietnamese sources hint fretfully that they are being subjected to American arm twisting.

Casualties Lowest in 11 Weeks

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) - U.S. casualties in Vietnam last week were the lowest in 11 weeks, reflecting the continuing lull in the ground war. South Vietnamese and enemy casualties also were considerably less than the week before.

The U.S. Command announced today that 101 Americans were killed in action last week and 599 were wounded, the lowest American casualties since the week of Oct. 13-19, when 100 were killed and 589 were wounded.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported 150 government troops killed and 602 wounded, a sizable decrease from the 279 killed and 901 wounded the previous week. The two commands reported at least 1,846 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese killed, compared with 2,135 the week before.

The report for the last week of 1968 brought the total American combat casualties since Jan. 1, 1961, to 30,644 killed, 192,926 wounded and 1,238 missing or captured; in those eight years, the U.S. Command said, at least 431,736 of the enemy have been killed.

In the seven and a half months after the preliminary peace talks opened in Paris on May 13, a total of 7,693 Americans, 9,020 South Vietnamese military personnel, and 83,180 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese were reported killed.

Despite more than 100 allied sweeping operations under way throughout South Vietnam, only fleeting and scattered contact with Viet Cong and North Vietnamese forces was reported again today.

The swarms continued to uncover significant enemy stocks of food and weapons. One U.S. air cavalry unit bagged eight bicycles in working condition northwest of Saigon.

Harassing Viet Cong mortar and rocket fire fell on two provincial capitals, a district town and an American artillery camp during the night, military authorities reported.

They said damage and casualties were light.

Employment Rises for 3rd Month

WASHINGTON (AP) - The number of Americans with jobs rose for the third straight month in December while unemployment remained at post-Korean War lows, the Labor Department said Thursday.

The year 1968's average jobless rate was 3.6 per cent, another post-Korean War low and down from 3.8 per cent in the two previous years.

For December total employment stood at 76.7 million, 100,000 more than in November, the department said.

After seasonal adjustment, the department said, the employment gain amounted to 475,000 with gains in construction, state and local government, manufacturing, and wholesale and retail trade leading the way.

More than half of the 80,000 increase in state and local government was due to the return to payrolls of striking New York City teachers.

Average hourly earnings rose 1 cent in December to $2.93—a 20 cent gain for the year. Average weekly earnings advanced $1.25 over the month to $10.75 with the largest gain—$10 occurring in construction.

Average weekly earnings in December 1967 were $103.74.
